GOWANS'S ART BOOKS

Nov. 1st, 1908.

Messrs. Gowans & Gray ask with confidence for the continued support of this undertaking by lovers of art. It is their hope to be able to cover the whole field of classic painting by including all important artists who were born before the year 1800, and the preparation of new volumes is being carried on steadily and systematically with this end in view.

As new editions of the earlier volumes are required, improvements are being introduced and doubtful pictures replaced by genuine works well-known authorities—whose names are given—being followed in every case. Rubens, Van Dyck, Rembrandt, Raphael, Reynolds, and Teniers have already appeared in this improved form, and the others which require revision are being actively proceeded with.

The publishers hope to accelerate the issue of the series by publishing future volumes at regular monthly intervals, and their efforts will be very much assisted if those who appreciate the books will place standing orders, "till further notice," with their booksellers.

They beg to announce the following:

22. THE MASTERPIECES OF TINTORETTO.
[November, 1908.

23. THE MASTERPIECES OF POUSSIN.
[December, 1908.

24. THE MASTERPIECES OF PERUGINO.
[January, 1909.

25. THE MASTERPIECES OF MICHELANGELO
[February, 1909.

26. THE MASTERPIECES OF GOYA.
[March, 1909.

Gowans's Nursery Pictures

THE publishers believe that the complete novelty of a series of four coloured pictures by Mr. Stewart Orr, which they have just published will ensure their immediate success. No similar series is in existence, and the attractive appearance of the prints will delight every child who is presented with them. They are supplied in neat brown paper frames, ready to hang up, at Sixpence each, net, Postage, threepence extra.

THE FOUR SUBJECTS ARE:

OLD MOTHER GOOSE
HUMPTY-DUMPTY
TOM THE PIPER'S SON
THREE BLIND MICE

The pictures are to be had through any bookseller, printseller, or stationer, or direct from the publishers,

GOWANS & GRAY, Ltd., 58 Cadogan St., Glasgow

Gowans's Nature Books

THE object of these little books is to stimulate a love for nature and a desire to study it. All the volumes of the series that have been issued so far have been very successful, and the publishers hope to be able to maintain the very high standard of excellence which has made this series so well known all over the country. Some of the photographs included in the different volumes are unequalled and unique triumphs of the nature-photographer's art.

THE

RAPHAEL

(1483-1520)

Sixty reproductions of photographs from the original paintings principally by F. Hanfstaengl, affording examples of the different characteristics of the Artist's work.

GOWANS & GRAY, LTD.
5 ROBERT STREET, ADELPHI, LONDON, W.C.
58 CADOGAN STREET, GLASGOW
1910

First Edition, April, 1905. Reprinted, September, 1905, January, 1906, June, 1906. Second Edition, May, 1907. Reprinted, July, 1907, January, 1908. Third Edition (from entirely new plates), September, 1908. Reprinted, January, 1909, May, 1909. Fourth Edition (corrected), November, 1910.

THIS new edition of "The Masterpieces of Raphael" has been very greatly improved, no fewer than 26 photographs being new, and is now thoroughly representative of the work of the Artist. The book contains only such pictures as are considered genuine by Mr. Berenson. In his opinion all are entirely by Raphael's hand, except those on pp. 28, 30, 52, 54, which he believes to be "in great part" by the Master; those on pp. 23, 43, 46, 55-58, and 60-62, in which he thinks the execution is by, or chiefly by, Giulio Romano or others; that on p. 48, which he says is only in "very small part" Raphael's; that on p. 41, of which he thinks the upper part only is by Raphael; and that on p. 17, which he thinks is completely repainted.

THE LIFE OF LOPE DE VEGA

The Great Spanish Dramatist

By HUGO A. RENNERT

PROFESSOR OF ROMANIC LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE IN THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

THERE has been no life of Lope de Vega published in English since that by Lord Holland nearly 100 years ago.

Professor Rennert has been able to take advantage of the labours of all previous workers in the same field, and has in addition been fortunate above all his predecessors in that documents were published for the first time within the last few years by Señor Pérez Pastor, which threw a flood of light on many dark points in Lope's career.

He has made full use of all fresh data, and has endeavoured to record every known fact in the life of the poet. His biography is therefore the most thorough yet published, and in the opinion of Mr. Fitzmaurice-Kelly, the leading English authority, his biography is the standard life. It is consequently indispensable to every important library.
